Why is Vendor Oversight Important?

- Regulatory Requirement
- Creates open & honest communication
- Protects our Members
- Protects US
- Helps prevent, mitigate, and remediate risks and identified gaps before they become disclosures
- Sets an expectation
- THE RIGHT THING TO DO!

Pre-Delegation Audits

- Pre-delegation oversight is a formal process by which the Health Plan, prior to entering into a written contractual agreement with an external entity, evaluates the entity's ability to perform certain functions on its behalf
- Test out the following:
 - Policies & procedures
 - Exclusion lists
 - Required training
 - Key Performance Indicators & Service Level Agreements
 - Adherence to the seven elements

Risk Profiling & Assessments

- Establish Vendor Risk profile – The goal is to provide an objective understanding of risk by assigning numerical values to variables representing different types of threats
- Risk Factors:
 - Type of access to Protected Health Information
 - Direct member contact
 - Type of engagement
 - Time since last audit
 - Monitoring Survey results
 - Privacy incidents
 - Business Relationship Complexity
 - Prior Audit/Reviewing Findings
