September 16, 2021 • 12:00 PM Central Daylight Time (CDT) • 90 minutes

Sarah Swank, Counsel,
Nixon Peabody LLP

The COVID-19 pandemic continues as we head into fall. So now what is next? Vaccines are in full circulation, but hospitals and healthcare entities around the country are now seeing surges of the Delta variant. As we head into fall and winter, and the traditional flu season, healthcare providers should be mindful of the evolving legal and compliance landscape, stay nimble, and be prepared to adjust as needed. This webinar will discuss ongoing developments, rapidly changing requirements, and the impact that COVID-19 continues to have on hospitals and healthcare providers. Topics include:

- Tracking and ensuring Provider Relief Fund compliance
- Navigating executive order, regulatory, and legislative changes
- Focusing on digital health and telehealth compliance
- Cybersecurity risks and HIPAA breach notifications
- COVID-19 vaccines, safety, and public health guidance
- Value-based care and the impact of the pandemic on compliance
- Health justice, equity, and inclusion
- What's on the horizon
